WATER COLORS.

We are now prepared to furnish you with the finest work in this line. Guaranteed true to life in every respect. In answer to a question often asked—Do you still do your own enlarging? For the past six months I have done very little of this work outside of making any necessary changes. I would make the days longer if I could. As it is I have spent time and money to find an artist to do this class of work satisfactorily to me as well as my customers. As a result I can furnish anything in water colors, sepia, pastels, etc., that cannot be surpassed. It is worth something to know you are getting the best. Then patronize

Brookfield.

Miss Lillian Buck is quite sick.
A Thanksgiving offering will be taken next Sunday at the First and Second churches for Home missions.

Mr. Hubert Smith, brother of George Smith, preached at the First church last Sunday by invitation of the pastor, and gave a most excellent sermon.

George Pantou had his cows tested recently and three of them were found diseased and had to be killed. The rest of his large herd were all right.

Mrs. Andrew Edison visited Mr. Calagan's people and other friends in town last week. She is very much improved in health since her visit two years ago.

Mrs. Horace Kilbee, who went to Burlington recently in hope of medical benefit, returned last week. The physicians gave her no encouragement of relief.

The recent rains have broken the long drought and have been a great boon to this whole region. Many springs that were dry are now overflowing once more.
The pond is up to high water mark. By the way, Mr. George Crane, who has been thoroughly repairing and refitting his mills during the dry season, has everything ready now to do first-class work.
People should bring their grain, lumber, etc., before the cold weather freezes everything up.

NEVER SUCH TESTIMONIALS.

What the Mail Brings to the Paine's Celery Compound Subject.

What excuse is there for not getting strong and well? Paine's celery compound, the world's great remedy for nervous weakness, can be obtained at any druggist's in any city or in any country town. One can get a heart-ier, healthier appetite, purify the blood and increase its power of feeding the nerves and tissues by taking Paine's celery compound.

It is the greatest invigorator in existence. Convince yourself of the fact.
Try it.

Testimonials for publication are taken quite at random by the present proprietors of this great remedy.

The letters are never "doctored."

Names of untitled people. Honest but obscure men are never said to be "honorables." Everyday kind of men who have been made well by Paine's celery compound are never paraded before the public as "The Great Mr. So and

So," or "The Wonderfully Successful

Mr. This and That." Cases of ordinary sickness are never elaborated into hideous, impossible diseases.

When it happens that the mail brings a heartfelt letter from such a man as State Treasurer Colvin of New York, or Mr. Carlisle's private secretary, or Edmund Russell, or Mayor

McShane of Montreal, or Rev. Fr.

Ouellet, or Commodore Howell, or Mr. Gilman of Judge, or Ida Lewis, or ex-Minister to Austria John M.
Francis, or any other widely-known man or woman who expressly wishes others to be benefited by his or her experience, the proprietors of Paine's celery compound gladly give such unsolicited testimonials to the public press.

But one person's health is as valuable as another's, and in publishing the testimonials of people whom this great remedy has made well and strong, no particular emphasis is put upon such persons' official standing.

The world is made up of what Abraham Lincoln called "the plain people." It is they whom Paine's celery compound has most benefited.

Here is a letter (verbatim) just received from Louisa Pierce of Melette, South Dakota:

"I used Paine's celery compound first for rheumatism, and found that it helped me very much. I have since used it for nervousness and kidney trouble, and have received very much benefit from its use and consider it one of the best of remedies. Mr. A.
Cady's people use it and think they can hardly get along without it in the house. I know of several others who have used it that I am not acquainted with, but one other lady, Mrs. Ondell, used it for nervousness, and it made her well."

There is the testimony of thousands,
Paine's celery compound well.
